FEEDER CATTLE

12:00 PM

Demand was good on a moderate supply. Buyers were active as it appeared they were trying to round up some cattle a little cheaper after watching the futures market sell off last week. Plenty of hay around the area this year and corn prices in a free fall should support cattle prices the rest of the year.

Bred Cow Early Listing for August 20th:

Rowena Farms, Centralia, MO

82 good black and red bred cows. 16 will be big reds to start calving right away. These will all be young mostly four year olds. Also around 48 mostly five and six year old cows that will start calving in October. Then around 20 running age cows from six years to solid mow, with nothing over eight or nine years old we believe.

16 big pair. These big black pairs run separately and have been running back with a good black bull. These cows originated from the Oberholtzers in Northeast MO. The calves started coming February 4 through the first of April, and are big impressive rascals. These are cows you'll want to put in the "show pasture" next to the road.

North Fork Farms, Louisiana, MO

15 pairs, these will be three-year-old red angus cows that originated out of the Gatson replacement female program. They are running back with two Jackson Lashmett SimAngus bulls from Winchester IL, the cows have a complete health program and the calves have had their first round of shots per Dr. Neal Martin.

Carl Thompson, Monroe City, MO

15 pairs, these cows will be black and black white face cows running mostly from four to six years old.

Tyler Haerr, Palmyra, MO

9 Blk white face cows 4-7 yrs. Bred to black angus bulls. Due to start calving anytime.

Casey Poindexter, Montgomery City, MO

2 - 5-6 yr old Hereford cows with white face calves bred back to black bulls.

Andy Nolke, Rochepport, MO

24 Fall calving cows. 12 Black and 12 Crossbreds. Middle age to running age cows. Ready to start calving soon.

This is only a partial listing that will be added to as sale approaches. This additional Bred Cow Sale will take the place of our monthly Regular Sale Aug-Nov 2024. Take home Bred Cows will start selling at Noon
